3. The financial year is the calendar year.
4. All functional designations of this contribution are used gender-neutrally, unless they obviously refer only to women or men.

§ 2 Purpose of the association

1. The purpose of the association exclusively and directly is to maintain and promote amateur dance sports as a physical exercise for the general public and for all ages as well as the appropriate and professional training of dance athletes for the competition.
2. The association is party-politically neutral and represents the principle of religious and ideological tolerance.
3. The association condemns all forms of violence, regardless of whether it is of a physical, mental or sexualized nature.

§ 3 Non-profit status

1. The association does not primarily pursue its own economic purposes; its activity and any assets serve exclusively and directly non-profit purposes within the meaning of §§ 52 et seq. of the Tax Code (AO 1977).
2. Funds of the association may only be used for the statutory purposes. The members do not receive any donations from the funds of the association.

3. When they leave or dissolve or cancel the association, the members will not receive more than their paid-up capital shares and the common value of their contributions in kind.
4. The association may not favor a person through expenses that are alien to the purpose of the association or by disproportionately high remuneration.
5. Grants to the association from earmarked funds of the state, the Bavarian State Sports Association, the State Dance Sports Association Bavaria or any other institution or authority may only be used for the prescribed purposes.

§ 4 Members

1. The association consists of ordinary members, youth members, honorary members and supporting members
2. Members are youth members up to the age of 18, then they become ordinary members.
3. Anyone who has acquired excellent services to promote dance sports in general or to the club in particular can be appointed honorary member by decision of the Presidium.
4. Supporting members support the purpose of the association through their membership; they do not actively participate in the training.

§ 5 Acquisition of membership

1. Any natural person can become a member of the association.
2. Membership is applied for by written registration, for young people with the written consent of the legal representative.
3. The application for admission can be accepted or rejected. In the case of a rejection of the application for admission by the Presidium, the person concerned has the right of objection. In the event of renewed rejection by the Presidium, the next ordinary general meeting will decide.

§ 6 Termination of membership

1. Membership ends by withdrawal, exclusion or death.
2. The resignation of a member must be declared by written notice to the Presidium of the association. The notice period is regulated in the contribution regulations.
3. A member can be excluded from the association
 - A. In the event of gross violations of the objectives of the association, the orders of the Presidium and the club discipline.
 - B. In case of serious damage to the reputation of the association.
 - C. In case of dishonorable behaviour.
 - D. In case of grossly unsportsmanlike behaviour.

The exclusion can only take place after a written request of an ordinary member or at the request of a presidential member by unanimous decision of the Presidium. Before taking a decision, the member concerned must be given the opportunity to comment. The exclusion must be notified to the person concerned in writing by the Presidium. The person concerned can object to the exclusion, on which the next ordinary general meeting decides. Membership is suspended until this decision.

4. The exclusion of a member does not require a written application if the member is more than 3 months late with his contribution obligations and has not paid within a further period of 14 days even after a reminder.

§ 7 Rights and obligations of members

1. All members have the right to participate in club life within the framework of the contribution and other regulations and to use the facilities and equipment free of charge within the training hours set by the Presidium in the training plan.
2. All ordinary members and honorary members are entitled to vote and can be elected.
3. The contribution, the regulations and the resolutions of the association organs are binding for the members. The instructions of the trainers and the supervisors commissioned by the association must be followed.
4. The members are obliged to pay the contributions on time, to promote the interests of the association and to refrain from anything that contradicts the reputation and purpose of the association. Any change of address must be communicated to the Presidium immediately.
5. The association, its board as well as its officials, members and trainers are committed to the principles of comprehensive child and youth protection and advocate the physical and mental integrity and physical and mental self-determination of the entrusted children and adolescents. The association cultivates a culture of attention and regularly carries out preventive measures to protect children and adolescents from sexualized violence in sport.

§ 8 Adhesion

1. The members are insured within the framework of the sports accident liability insurance taken out by the Bavarian State Sports Association.
2. The association is not liable for thefts in the club premises and at events.
3. Each member is liable for all damages that he inflicts on the association or its members through self-inflicted, illegal or harmful behaviour.

§ 9 Admission fee, contributions

1. Members will be charged an admission fee and contributions.
2. The amount of the admission fee is determined by the Presidium.
3. The amount of the contributions is determined by the member assembly on the proposal of the Presidium.
4. The amount and payment method of admission fee and contributions are defined in the contribution regulations.

§ 10 Organs of the association

1. Bodies of the association are the Presidium and the General Assembly.

§ 11 Presidium

1. The Presidium consists of
 - A. the president
 - B. the vice-president
 - C. the treasurer
 - D. the sports officer
 - E. the event manager
 - F. the youth warden
 - G. the press spokesman
2. The representative board within the meaning of § 26 BGB is the president, the vice-president and the treasurer. The association is represented by the president alone or the vice-president together with the treasurer.
3. The Presidium is elected by the General Assembly for a period of 3 years. The Presidium can also be elected by the members by postal ballot or by comparable secure electronic forms of voting, provided that the invitation to the general meeting stipulates this possibility.

4. All ordinary members and honorary members are eligible.
5. Persons of the representative board can hold a maximum of one additional office of the Presidium (§ 11, 1d - g).
6. In addition to representing the association, the Presidium is responsible for the performance of the association's business in accordance with the statutes and the resolutions of the General Assembly.
7. In the event of the resignation of a presidential member, the Presidium is supplemented by election, which must be confirmed by the next general assembly.
8. The Presidium may appoint representatives. The tasks and responsibilities of these representatives as well as the duration of their term of office must be determined by the Presidium.
9. The Presidium may also meet at the meeting place via electronic communication without the presence of the officials. This does not limit the quorum.

§ 12 General Assembly

1. The General Assembly takes place every 3 years by 31st March at the latest. It must also be convened if it requires the interest of the association or if 1/4 of the members of the association so requests from the Presidium in writing and stating the reasons and purpose.
2. In the General Assembly, all ordinary members and honorary members are entitled to vote. Voice transmission is not permitted.
3. The general assemblies must be convened by the Presidium at least four weeks before the meeting date by publication on the homepage www.ttc-muenchen.de and by posting in the clubhouse. With the convocation, the agenda must be communicated at the same time.
4. Any duly convened General Assembly has a quorum. In decisions and elections, the simple majority of the votes cast decides. Only the ratio of the yes-to-no votes cast is decisive for this. Abstentions and invalid votes are not taken into account.
5. Amendments to the Articles of Association can only be decided by the General Assembly with a majority of votes of two thirds of the members with voting rights to appear.
6. The type of vote is determined by the chairman of the meeting. It must be made in writing if at least one fifth of the members who appear request it. If an ordinary General Assembly is not feasible, after prior information to the members about the subject of the vote and the opportunity to comment, a vote can also be carried out by postal ballot or comparable secure electronic forms.
7. The resolutions of the General Assembly must be recorded. The minutes must be signed by two members of the representative board.

§ 13 Youth Assembly

1. The Youth Assembly includes all youth members of the association.
2. A Youth Assembly must take place before each ordinary General Assembly; it must be convened by the youth warden in accordance with the provisions for convening the General Assembly.
3. An extraordinary Youth Assembly must be convened at the written request of at least 1/3 of the members entitled to vote at the youth assembly in accordance with § 13, paragraph 2.
4. The Youth Assembly, which is chaired by the youth warden, elects the youth warden and the youth spokesman. The youth spokesman may be 18 and not have reached the age of 21 yet. He is elected for one year at a time.
5. The Youth Assembly takes its decisions by a simple majority of votes in accordance with the provisions of § 12, paragraph 4. Each youth member has one vote; voting is not permitted.

§ 14 Dissolution of the association

1. The association can be dissolved by decision of the General Assembly, provided that it has been convened specifically for this purpose and at least two thirds of the members of the association are present. In this General Assembly, all members of the association are entitled to vote in accordance with § 4, paragraph 1.
2. If the General Assembly does not have a quorum, a General Assembly must be convened again within four weeks, which has a quorum regardless of the number of members present. This must be pointed out when inviting me to the new General Assembly.
3. The dissolution of the association requires a majority of nine tenths of the members who appear.
4. The liquidation is carried out by the members of the Presidium acting at the time of the dissolution, representing the association.
5. In the event of dissolution of the club or the abolition of the previous purpose, the assets of the club fall to the Bavarian State Dance Sport Association e.V. or, in the event of rejection, to the city of Munich, which must use the assets directly and exclusively for the promotion and maintenance of youth dance sports.

§ 15 Entry into force of the statutes

These statutes were adopted at the General Assembly of 29.06.1982 and entered into force on 20.09.1982 after approval by the register court and entry in the register of associations.

It was amended and supplemented by a resolution of the General Assemblies on 10.03.1995, 06.03.2009, 09.03.2018 and 01.10.2021.
